IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT PATNA
Cr.Misc. No.47769 of 2008
SHEO BARAT MANJHI … … Petitioner
Versus
THE STATE OF BIHAR … … Opp. Party
For the petitioner: Shri Sudhir Kumar Sinha
For the State:Shri Dashrath Mehta,APP

---

2. 4.12.2008 Heard.

The petitioner appears a professional as regards the offence. There is history of the petitioner and the present case is one of such cases. The petitioner and his two companions were moving out with two oxen of the informant but the persons of the neighbouring village identifying the oxen being that of the informant challenged the petitioner and his companions. One of his companions fled away. The petitioner and another Gupta Paswan were apprehended and the oxen were recovered.

WEB COPY NOT OFFICIAL

It is true that the petitioner is in custody since 18.8.2007 but, as indicated above, it is one of many cases in which the petitioner was found indulging in similar type of offence. Habitual offender may not get relief of bail.

The petition is dismissed.

Kanth (Dharnidhar Jha,J.)